3. The 2008 WSU Senior Exhibition is on display in the Robert and Elaine Stein Galleries through June 15. This exhibit features drawing, painting, sculpture, printmaking, photography, and mixed media from senior and graduating students in our Department of Art and Art History.

4. The seventh annual CoLA Graduate Student Colloquium will be held on June 4 from 4:00-8:00 p.m. in the Millett Atrium. The symposium highlights and supports the best research and creative efforts of our CoLA graduate students. This year's presenters include:

Carolyn Stoermer, "An Art Apart: Finding Women's Voices in Contemporary Scrapbooks," Master of English Program, Literature Concentration.

Kathy Hayes, "The Influence of Family on the Preservation of Appalachian Traditional Music: From the Front Porch to Performance," Master of Humanities Program.

Tim Davis and Ryan Gibson, "City of Troy Refuse Collection Study: Comparative Performance Measurement and Cost Analysis," Master of Public Administration Program.

Rachel Dehart, "Air Technical Intelligence: A Cold War Aerospace Technology Oral History Project," Master of Public History Program.

This event is open to faculty, staff, students, and guests.

5. Angels in America will be performed in the Herbst Theatre on June 6 and 7 at 8:00 p.m. and on June 7 and 8 at 3:00 p.m. Call the Theatre Box Office at 775-2500 to reserve your tickets today.

6. A Classical Viennese Evening, celebrating the chamber and sacred music of Haydn, Mozart, and Beethoven, will be presented on June 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the Creative Arts Center Concert Hall. Tickets ($10 adult; $8 student/faculty/staff/senior/child) can be purchased by calling the Student Union Box Office at 775-5544.

7. As of last week, CoLA has raised over $18,000 for the Campus Scholarship and Innovation Campaign, with 27% of CoLA faculty and staff participating. If you have not already made your gift, please consider doing so to help us reach our 35% participation goal. Donating is easy by going online at www.wright.edu/csic to give by credit card or to print a pledge form which will allow you to give by credit card, check, or payroll deduction (starting in July 2008). If you have any questions, contact Jennie Cabrera (jennifer.cabrera@wright.edu).

Congratulations to the following recent CoLA CSIC raffle winners:

Rich Bullock, English – two tickets to Lady, Be Good

Laura Luehrmann, Political Science – two tickets to Lady, Be Good

Erin Flanagan, English – gift card to Quaker Steak and Lube
